

Everybody Is Sober

Beth Hart

Something' coming in the dead of night
It's got me running like a speed of light
My soul shines like suicide
Something's coming in the dead of night

Something's rising with the new days sun
Everybody's got a holy gun
Devil walks where the angels run
Something's rising with the new days sun

Everybody's sober, sober
Everybody's sober, sober
Everybody's sober, and I'm still high
I'm still high

I belong to everything
City lights and broken dreams
Concrete sky and picture shows
I belong so let me go

Everybody's sober, sober
Everybody's sober, sober
Everybody's sober, and I'm still high
I'm still high

Don't tell me that he's sober
Don't put your hand on my shoulder
I'm not getting sober
I'm getting high

I belong to what I believe in
I'm not dead, and I aint done dreaming
I belong to this world I know
I belong, so let me go
yeah, yeah

Everybody's sober, sober
Everybody's sober, and I'm still high
I'm still high, high
I'm still high
