

Sky Is Falling

Beth Hart

There is a light
That shimmers like a diamond in the night
A fire that is powerful and strong
And I call it home

Here in the dark
Where I dream myself to sleep I feel my heart
As timeless as the carving on the stone
And yes it's home

Miracles happening every day
Millions of people are dying to get away

'Cause the sky is falling
The angels are calling
But I have no fear
Yes the sky is falling
The angels are calling me
Yes I can hear
That the sky is falling

Opening up
I stretch my arms so wide I feel my love
It's falling right out of the sky and home
Yes I call it home

Miracles happening every day
Millions of people are dying to get away

'Cause the sky is falling
The angels are calling
But I have no fear
Yes the sky is falling
The angels are calling me
Yes I can hear
That the sky is falling

Sky is falling

Miracles happening every day
Millions of people are dying to get away

'Cause the sky is falling
The angels are calling

Yes I can hear
'Cause the sky is falling
The angels are calling me
But I have no fear
That the sky is falling

It's on the good side
On the good side

Sky is falling
