

Home Is Me - You Are Mine

Bethany Joy Lenz

I will not sleep well tonight
I will not be fine when the morning brings the dreaded light
I will kiss the lips that say goodbye
Clinging to the comfort of my God on high

I will not be moved by and by
I am not ashamed of the battle though my eyes may cry
I will kiss the lips that bid farewell
As you march to the sound of the mission bell

Oh the glimmer of the light along the water
And the sound of the children on the shore
Oh the sweet fields of gold beneath the big blue sky
Let it be
Home is me
You are mine

Life was moving on day by day
Friendship overflowing
But to me you cannot be replaced
I will hold you tight in my dreams
Though you're gone
You're not as distant as it seems

Oh the glimmer of the light along the water
And the sound of the children on the shore
Oh the sweet fields of gold beneath the big blue sky
Let it be
Home is me
You are mine

Oh the purple mountains majesty is calling
And the northern lights still dance above the snow
Yes amazing grace is still the fire beneath this life
Let it be
Home is me
You are mine

Let it be
Home is me
You are mine

Let it be
Home is me
And you are mine
