

Freakanomics

Big Boi

It's Freakonomics
That's why every guy is making money
Got it down to a science, and she studying
Since the beginning of time
Every girl I see got a PhD in Freakonomics

It's Freakonomics
It's Freakonomics
Every girl I see got a PhD in Freakonomics

She say she want to see me but I got me somebody
I tell her see you next lifetime but she wants me today
And if I give her D, she will never go away
Now she know that I know that we know we fucking
All up in each other like it ain't nothing
No cuffing, just bussing
Don't stop till you get enough of the hip-thrusting
Trust me, always in a must win
Fall back what you thinking I'm a husband?
Boyfriend? Bae? Naw, give up the drawers
Forever in the friend-zone? Yes we are

I know it may seem, I'm falling for her plans
I know it may seem, she's got me eating out her hands
She's not my lady and I am not her man
Say that's just my friend and we gon'
It's Freakonomics
That's why every guy is making money
Got it down to a science, and she studying
Since the beginning of time
Every girl I see got a PhD in Freakonomics

It's Freakonomics
It's Freakonomics
Every girl I see got a PhD in Freakonomics

And anytime I want to get down I hit her line
Round after round you just touched down
You had a long flight but you wanna bust now
Hour later, light the candles
Come out those panties, please
Got to be polite with all these freaks, freeze
Tag the moon over the stars
She say she want to see me but I got me somebody
I tell her see you next lifetime but she wants me today
And if I give her D, she will never go away

I know it may seem, I'm falling for her plans
I know it may seem, She's got me eating out her hands
She's not my lady and I am not her man
Say that's just my friend and we gon'
It's Freakonomics
That's why every guy is making money
Got it down to a science, and she studying
Since the beginning of time
Every girl I see got a PhD in Freakonomics

It's Freakonomics
It's Freakonomics
Every girl I see got a PhD in Freakonomics
