Big D And The Kids Table

```
175
```

So it seems Our disc was run over Shattered all out dreams The sun is shining down We play disc in every single town that we stop in Chris, Paul, Steve, Dan, Flores, Rogan, our drummer and me What a nice breeze Today has flipped over kinda like a dream Running around What is lost can always be found 175 Grams of disc The wind may blow the snow may fall We're playing disc late into the fall And the winter I just met her Hardly know her wanna wakeout with her again I need another beer It seems I drank the whole 12 ounces of the one I has right her е Stop the van Dan we need to piss We need to it's our dying wish 175 Grams of disc What's better than Grant's apartment? DISC! What's better than disc? Nothing! 175 Grams of disc