

In A Hole

Big Drill Car

This dog's a bark is worse than his bite
First you owe five, or a good night
And although this one it was informed
This is the calm before the storm
Doesn't need a leash
Cause all he needs is time to get a handle on what's left to fight
No doors are open, ??? can do
This is a sight, grown accustomed to
One for one he, picked them apart
Without a conscience, without a heart
Doesn't need a leash
All he needs is time to get a handle on what's left to fight
You'll mull it over
Use your time wise now because you'll end up alone
Some call him Rhino
But never Fats
Don't correct him, knows where it's at
Never too much, never enough
Common sense boy, don't call his bluff
Doesn't need a leash
Cause all he needs is time to get a handle on what's left to fight
You'll mull it over
Use your time wise now or you'll end up alone inside a hole
Some call him Rhino, some call him Fats
Don't forgive him, knows where it's at
Never too much, never enough
Not a blind man, don't call his bluff
