Bittersweet

Big Head Todd and the Monsters

A little light looks through her bedroom window She dances and I dream, she's not so far as she seems Of brighter meadows, melting sunsets Her hair blowing in the breeze And she can't see me watching And I'm thinking love, love Love, love

It's bittersweet More sweet than bitter Bitter than sweet It's a bittersweet surrender

I said I'm older now I work in the city, we live together But it's different than my dream Morning light fills the room, I rise She pretends she's sleeping Are we everything we wanted And I'm thinking love, love Love, love

It's bittersweet More sweet than bitter Bitter than sweet It's a bittersweet surrender

I said I know we don't talk about it We don't tell each other All the little things that we need We work our way around each other As we tremble and we As we tremble and we bleed As we tremble and we As we tremble and we bleed

It's bittersweet More sweet than bitter Bitter than sweet It's a bittersweet surrender
