Big Head Todd and the Monsters

And all of these chains; a sweet caress
And all of my weight was tenderness
Every time we had it put to bed
Oh, the tables are turning 'round and
I'm in it again

Now it's the ending of our second chance
And there's no telling where we're gonna go
Save what I was spending at the circus and Save everything I can before
I'm blown away

Every time you had it put to bed
The reason I initially believed
I finally found someone certain and
He left a flower inside of you
Only for me to see
