

Fake Diamond Kind

Big Head Todd and the Monsters

She never says what she means
She's the fake diamond kind
Now she's staring right through me with her cold gray eyes
Shooting right through me
Is it a truth or a lie? 'cause
Friendship and love, they go together
Friendship and love, they belong together

Now everybody knows that
She's the fake diamond kind
A little rough around the edges but so shiny on the inside
All she needs is a little love, a little sunshine
To keep her soul from crying out loud
So let her soul cry out loud

She never says what she needs 'cause
She's her own diamond mine
Shakes it up, sets me free, yeah she make the whole world right
She's the only one I need
Yeah, she's my heart's delight 'cause
Friendship and love, they go together
Friendship and love, they belong together

Friendship and love
Friendship and love
Friendship and love
