

Hubert's Dream

Big Head Todd and the Monsters

Fly away from here Hubert Sumlin
The ground of New Jersey has gone cold
Fly away from here Hubert Sumlin
The ground of New Jersey has gone cold
When you gonna learn
Chicago always gonna be your home

Drive away from this evil world
Drive that old car back to Silvio's
Drive away from this evil world
Drive that old car back to Silvio's
To that same old place
Where you and the Wolf used to lay it down so cold

Roll where you want Hubert Sumlin
Momma B ain't gonna leave you alone
Roll where you want Hubert Sumlin
Chicago always be your home

Woman number one
Much too young
Woman number two
The Wolf tried to warn you, she tried to poison you
Woman number three
Sweet Momma B
Third time's a charm
She bought you a house
On an old Wisconsin farm

Roll where you want Hubert Sumlin
Momma B ain't gonna leave you alone
Roll where you want Hubert Sumlin
Chicago always be your

Roll where you want Hubert Sumlin
Momma B ain't gonna leave you alone
Roll where you want Hubert Sumlin
Chicago always be your
Chicago always be your
Chicago always be your home
