

Sky Line

Big K.R.I.T.

We can wake up in the morning
Look out the window, see a different sky line (sky line)
We can wake up in the morning
Goodbye, time to see a different sky line (sky line)

I wake up, breathe out
Stretch my arms and peek out
The window of my beach house
I'm so fly, I could leap out
I ball hard just to rebound
Rubber band chick, wild enough to leave out
She understand so I never have to creep out
The type of chick that get a chick while we b-ounce
I'm rock star in this, something foreign
Bugatti today, tomorrow Aston Martin
If I fall short, It's the lambo down the streets of Italy, no sandals
While people in the states is stressin'
I'm probably somewhere in Venice, wine testin'
Slow grater shit, rain maker
Meet a dime chick, the Da Vinci Code-breaker

We can wake up in the morning
Look out the window, see a different sky line (sky line)
We can wake up in the morning
Goodbye, time to see a different sky line (sky line)

Check me out
No consequences, we fly
Buckle up, baby girl, let's get high
I'm g5-in', sky linin'
Kick it with the natives on the local islands
I hit the strip in designer themes
Such now we dine on exotic cuisines
A young playa and ya know that Unless ya want anotha' chance don't blow that
So fresh I be, no mess I be, you're the same if you're beside me
I came for a run like H-O-V
So hoarder with the flow, call me tsunami
You don't know just who I be, young B-I-G K-R-I-T
Clear mind, crooked letter, crooked letter
Step to your different sky line, like we gettin' cheddar

We can wake up in the morning
Look out the window, see a different sky line (sky line)
We can wake up in the morning
Goodbye, time to see a different sky line (sky line)

It's winter time and the grass still green
Come see a view, I'm just oh so mean
And don't trip, cause' the tabs on me
Everything's for free, when you on my time
You must be a catch when you on my line
You call it paradise, but I'm on my grind
I do it big cause' I gotta
If not me, who's hotter?
Yeah I'm fly senorita, like I'm I'm the big kahuna down in Waikiki

The same place that I'm chillin' usually on TV
And you can go if you want to
If there's a God, ain't gon' tell em what we won't do
Every day, new place, new scene
Let's treat tonight like a dream

We can wake up in the morning
Look out the window, see a different sky line (sky line)
We can wake up in the morning
Goodbye, time to see a different sky line (sky line)
