

Asking Right

Big Scary

It's okay
It's okay
And you know you can't stop it
And you caught yourself in the way

And you're falling now
And it's all around
With a hand you keep checking
That you're breathing on the way back down

And you're falling now
Birds don't make a sound
They just sing their silence
It's your anthem
As you fall to the ground

Save your fight for another tune
This doesn't sit well on you
And if your heart's still strumming then
Sing me something new

It's a state
It's a state
The window's all foggy
Catching headlights every breath that you take

Save your fight for another tune
This doesn't sit well on you
And if your heart's still strumming then
Sing me something new

Never gonna see an answer
You're never gonna see an answer
Never gonna see an answer
If you're not asking right
Asking right

Save your fight for another tune
This doesn't sit well on you
And if your heart's still strumming then
Sing me something new

Never gonna see an answer
You're never gonna see an answer
You're never gonna see an answer
You're never gonna see an answer
(Losing hope)
(Heavy heart)
You're never gonna see an answer
(Hope the answer)
(Comes to light)
You're never gonna see an answer
(You'll never)
(Know if you're not asking right)
(Asking right)
