Wake up world, 'cause we're about to bring you some more of it
A shining star, here to break you off a bar
And my name is, haha, Bilal
Beloved, Intelligent, Lustful And Living it
You know what I mean
And basically I just came to put a little paint where it ain't
Do to women what most men, most music can't
This album, oh boy
This love, internationally known, locally accepted
Better known as pimping leisure
What better way to make your man insecure?
Now pop your collar to that
Now ladies, unwind
Feel the motion of a man
I'm like warm lotion on your back
Damn, now that feels good
What better way to sweat, stay wet
Than to tune in to some of this?
Universal, you know what it is
It's platinum, baby, now let's do this
