Roll Over Beethoven

Billie Myers

Everyone says that "I can do much better"

Better than what, hey I should go ask Oprah

Bullet proof, 100, your favorite alcohol

She said "Too much of a good thing it will kill you"

You're cheaper than a rack of stolen jackets
A parody of someone else you'd like to be
You speak of Deepak Chopra and of course world peace
A guru in the making down at sesame street

Its not the way you look so vain Or the way you misspell IE my name Hypothetically speaking Roll over roll over Beethoven

Tell me what did I do to deserve you What did I do?
Tell me why I like to hate you
'Cause I do hell, oh yes I do

Cats and dogs may sleep together

Doesn't mean they like each other

You get me to stand and deliver, karma boomerang

Tell me why I like to hate you 'cause I do hell, oh yes I do

You look great when my eyes are not open Dependables, predicables so turn the light on You're so clever when you're silent a real thespian Too much of a good thing it will kill you

Its not the way you're such a know it all Your god-like outlook only 5 foot small Hypothetically speaking Roll over, roll over Beethoven

Tell me what did I do to deserve you What did I do?
Tell me why I like to hate you
'Cause I do hell, oh yes I do

Cats and dogs may sleep together

Doesn't mean they like each other

You get me to stand and deliver, karma boomerang

Tell me why I like to hate you 'cause I do hell, oh yes I do

So Oprah said that "I could do much better"
Better than what, hey you know hey whatever
Big said "Throw me I'm a loser, I guess that must be true"
Why else would I be here with you?

Roll over roll over roll over Beethoven Roll over roll over roll over Beethoven Roll over

Tell me what did I do to deserve you What did I do?
Tell me why I like to hate you

'Cause I do hell, oh yes I do

Cats and dogs may sleep together

Doesn't mean they like each other

You get me to stand and deliver, karma boomerang

Tell me why I like to hate you 'cause I do hell, oh yes I do

Crash bang boomerang, Karma karma boomerang Crash bang boomerang, Karma karma boomerang Crash bang boomerang, Karma karma boomerang
