

Mina Loy (M.O.H.)

Billy Corgan

The siren calls outside
They want to kill us all
Innocents, wounded souls
Full of rage
Nowhere to go
Consequences be they may
I resolve to never change
I so vow to never yield

Can I give my old heart to you?

Cause when this feeling starts
That's when I blow it all away

"here, you're born" they'll say
"to die afraid, to lie awake"

It's plain the wars have won
The days of judgement rise
For innocents, wounded souls
How could they know?
They're burning cold
Paranoias be they may
I resolve to never change

Can I give my old heart to you?

Cause when this feeling starts
That's when I rip it all apart

Alright!
The end's in sight
We're born to die
One thousand times

I'm just one wish away
I'm just one wish away from you kid
I'm just one wish away
I'm just one wish away from you kid
I'm not so innocent
I'm not so innocent now kid

Can I give my old heart to you?
My old heart:
