Pain inside me is taking over again

Wide awake I open my eyes into a nightmare of a life that I des pise I gotta, break it down to the bare essentials 'cause life's too short to be sentimental.

Twisting around inside my head so many crazy visions - am I bet ter off dead?

Filled with dread - gun under the bed to clip all the motherfuc kers trying to keep me down, I ain't fuckin' around.

Wide awake my eyes are open I can't breathe my heart is choking and I can't speak

the words unspoken and I can't believe my life is broken again. . (my life is broken)

Keep trying to tell myself "everything will be OK, everything will go my way"

'till life steps in and slaps on the strangle, tears flow and f ists start to mangle.

I wake up screaming everyday, nobody pays attention when I'm wr ithing in pain,

I got a glitch in my brain I gotta break free from anxiety, I g otta let go of life $\,$

'cause it's killing me

[Chorus:]

Wide awake my eyes are open I can't breathe my heart is choking and I can't speak

the words unspoken and I can't believe my life is broken again.

My eyes are open, my heart is choking, on words unspoken, my li fe is broken again

I can't believe my life is broken apart again, I can't conceive my time was never well spent, sick of everybody talking about the things they nev er do, motherfuckers talking shit about who?

YOU!!

[Lead]

Pain inside me is taking over again

[Chorus]

How many times can you ask for a chance and expect everybody to keep giving it, forgiving it?
