Biting Elbows

Daydreaming in the night
Reassess all that's not right
Sometimes by myself
Never alone
But if you have to go
Just let me know
When you don't wish to stay
Something else takes your place

Heartache
I thought I told you
To get away from me
But you're still around
Shaken, jolted and battered
I know it don't matter
So why stick around

Nightmares during the day
Is it okay to not be okay
Cold water on my face
Never does shit
But when she wants to quit
I double down commit
And then she really leaves
Armageddon up her sleeves

Heartache
I thought I told you
To get away from me
But you're still around
Shaken, jolted and battered
I know it don't matter
So why stick around

I know that a slight dose of woes
Keeps me on my toes
And I suppose
You gotta stop enjoying feeling
Sorry for yourself
All is well

Heartache
I thought I told you
To get away from me
But you're still around
Shaken, jolted and battered
I know it don't matter
So why stick around

Heartache
I thought I told you
To get away from me
So don't stick around

Don't stick around
Don't stick around
Don't stick around
Don't stick around
Don't stick around
Don't stick around
Pack up all of your shit
And get the fuck outta town
You take up real estate
In my mind all the time
And you don't pay the rent
An unacceptable crime
So tonight is the night
And it's always the night
But it's never the night
No, it's never the night
Oh woe is me
Oh woe is me
Oh woe is me
Go fuck yourself anxiety
