

Open up the Door

Biting Elbows

Drinking rather heavily in the bar
I pass out heavenly in my car
Bright lights wake up this mess
Dreaming of happiness
I remember your name and our address

You better open up the door
Cause I got nowhere to go
No feet to carry me there
Unaware of anybody that wants me at their home
How do I live with myself now
I am seeping through the ground
Shame pulls and I sink like a stone
I am nowhere, I am home

Feel a little tired but I look like death
You scream like you're on fire but you're wasting breathe
Sweet talk sounds like a plan
Don't you know just who I am
I am Godzilla and you are Japan

You better open up the door
Cause I got nowhere to go
I got an itch only you can scratch
We are a match and I am much obliged Won't you come back over here
Cover me with fear

How do I live with myself now
I am seeping through the ground
Shame pulls and I sink like a stone
I am nowhere, I am home

I wanna take you on a holiday
There ain't no kind of bill that I wouldn't pay
You'll see trouble fades away
All's well when we're away

I try
I ain't giving up
I try
I ain't giving up
I try
I ain't giving up
I try, I try, I try
And I ain't giving up

Oh release me
Nothing you can do will please me
Oh release me
Nothing you can do will please me
