Just that kiss Was all there is Every cell in my body Lined up to you Legs a little open Once again Awaken my senses Head topless Arisen my senses Just that kiss, was all there is My palms pulsating of The things I want to do to you Just that kiss Is all there is Weaving a mixtape With every crossfade On www To him a he Weaving a mix tape With every song Awaken my senses Just that kiss Was all there is Just that kiss Was all there is Just that kiss Arisen my senses Was all there is For him a he Once again I'm made to merge To him a he

Am I keen or not keen
To be seen or not seen
With him a he
Am I keen or not keen
To be seen or not seen
With him a he

But he sees me for what who I am
