Black Breath

We have no name
control the cycle
of birth and death
devoid of conscience
remove the bonds
stopping at nothing
the star is rising
it's morning again
nameless one
rotting taste of flesh
heed no one's word
drink the saliva
rotting taste of flesh
heed no one's word
drink the saliva
follow the way
control the cycle
of birth and death
devoid of conscience
stopping at nothing
the star is rising
nameless one
follow the way
