Wound Up I walk by your house To see if you were at home It was my only chance I felt so alone It always seems I get so wound up To feel so let down I get so wound up I feel so let down I get so wound up I feel so let down I get so wound up I feel so let down I get so wound up Don't you ever see the way I look at you? Could you understand why I feel the way I do? I have a lot to show you Feel I have something to prove There's things I'd like to tell you My brain is slow to move I wish you'd give me a second So I could make you see That no one in the world could look at you And see the things I see I get so wound up I feel so let down I get so wound up I feel so let down I get so wound up I feel so let down I get so wound up I have strong emotions

Don't you ever see the way I look at you? Could you understand why I feel the way I do?

I keep them to myself I know I can write them I know I can sing them That's what I'll have to do Because in my heart Deep in my heart I keep a picture of you I get so wound up

I feel so let down I get so wound up I feel so let down I get so wound up I feel so let down I get so wound up
