Black Heaven

I feel the pain of loneliness at the base of consciousness I wanna taste your golden flesh There's nothing that I want to say oh love me now, love me today you lead my hand between your legs

Oh agony, my agony ...

I'm living in a violent dream where nothing is for what it seems slowly I stroke your naked skin oh could I live a second life, I say with tears in my eyes:
"there's no forgiveness for my sins"
