Fightin' Cock

Black Oak Arkansas

Down south there's a gamblin' sport Where they throw cock-roosters in a pit Son, ain't syin' what's right or wrong. I'm just sayin' how it is

One day I came across a small country town And all kinds of excitement was comin' down The folks spent all their money For a fight to the finish With a champion fightin' cock Oh Oh Oh Fightin' cock You're spurs are hot

They came to see the battle from miles around Ain't no other rooster could ever put him down They never heard of mercy nor the meaning of fear The only thing they understood

Was happening right there
Oh Oh Oh Fight cock
Won't you show me what you got
While you're spurs are hot

His feathers were ruffled
His tail was so bright
Struttin' real fancy
He always moved just right
And then he screamed out as did before
Because because he's in the middle
He stood no more
Oh Oh Oh Fightin' cock
Oh Oh Oh won't you show
Me what you've got
Oh Oh Oh you're spurs are hot
