

Sex Is Angry

Black Tide

You so damn good down on your knees
I know no one else can make you scream like me
Our love is just like a war
So when it hurts
I know that you just want it more

You can make me miserable
Bring out the worst of me
But you're so fucking beautiful
So go on and hate me, disrespect me
I love it when the sex is angry
This is almost suicidal
Might be the death of me
But you're so irresistible
So go on and hate me, hate me
I love it when the sex is angry

Now we only speak when we're arguing (when we're arguing)
And I'm scratched and bruised but I don't feel the pain
(I don't feel the pain, I don't feel the shame)
You walked out that door long ago
When it hurts I find myself wanting you more

You can make me miserable
Bring out the worst of me
But you're so fucking beautiful
So go on and hate me, disrespect me
I love it when the sex is angry
This is almost suicidal
Might be the death of me
But you're so irresistible
So go on and hate me, hate me
I love it when the sex is angry

Our love is just like a war
No retreat no remorse
Baby I love the way you scream
And I'm that fire
Baby I love it when we fight
Cause when it ends we're both satisfied

This love is just like a war (just like a war)
So when it hurts I find myself wanting it more (I want it more)
I love it, I love it, I love it when the sex is angry x2

You can make me miserable
Bring out the worst of me
But you're so fucking beautiful (beautiful)
So go on and hate me, disrespect me
I love it when the sex is angry
This is almost suicidal
Might be the death of me
But you're so irresistible
So go on and hate me, hate me I love it when the sex is angry
