

I Felt That

Blackbear

Yeah-yeah
Yeah-yeah

The truth is that you ripped out my heart
Then you stomped on it
The truth is that you switched up, you changed
You flipped the script (You flipped the script)

I'm out here feeling so weak, don't need this punishment
And every time you lie, you lied, I felt that shit (I felt that shit)
And every time you lie, you lied, I felt that shit
And every time you said, "Goodbye," I felt that shit

So kill me, kill me, kill me, I'm not goin' out tonight
I don't wanna see your face, I'd rather stay inside
Kill me, kill me, kill me, all I hear from you are lies
You made me wanna live forever, now I wanna die

Every time you lie, you lied, I felt, felt
Every time you said, "Goodbye," I felt, felt
Every time you lie, you lied, I felt, felt
Every time you said, "Goodbye," I felt, felt

I don't wanna see your new life, your new guy
And your accomplishments (Your accomplishments)
I don't wanna read the letters, those words
They don't mean shit (I don't wanna see them)

I'm out here feeling so weak, don't need this punishment
And every time you lie, you lied, I felt that shit (I felt that shit)
And every time you lie, you lied, I felt that shit
And every time you said, "Goodbye," I felt that shit (Oh)

So kill me, kill me, kill me, I'm not goin' out tonight
I don't wanna see your face, I'd rather stay inside (Rather stay inside)
Kill me, kill me, kill me, all I hear from you are lies (Are lies)
You made me wanna live forever, now I wanna die

Every time you lie, you lied, I felt, felt
Every time you said, "Goodbye," I felt, felt
Every time you lie, you lied, I felt, felt
Every time you said, "Goodbye," I felt, felt

I wanna die (Every time you lie, you lied, I felt that, felt that)

So kill me, kill me, kill me, I'm not goin' out tonight
I don't wanna see your face, I'd rather stay inside (Inside)
Kill me, kill me, kill me, all I hear from you are lies
You made me wanna live, laugh, love, and now I wanna die

Every time you lie, you lied, I felt, felt
Every time you said, "Goodbye," I felt, felt
Every time you lie, you lied, I felt, felt
Every time you said, "Goodbye," I felt, felt

Every time you lie, you lied, I felt that, felt that
