

Celluloid Heroes

Blackmore's Night

Everybody's a dreamer and everybody's a star
And everybody's in movies it doesn't matter who you are
There are stars in every city in every house and on every street
And if you walk down Hollywood Boulevard their names are written in concrete

Don't step on Greta Garbo as you walk down the boulevard
She looks so weak and fragile that's why she tried to be so hard
But they turned her into a princess and they sat her on a throne
But she turned her back on stardom because she wanted to be alone

Ref: You can see all the stars as you walk down Hollywood Boulevard
Some that you recognise some that you've hardly even heard of
People who worked and suffered and struggled for fame
Some who succeeded and some who suffered in vain

If you covered him with garbage George Sanders would still have style
And if you stamped on Mickey Rooney he would still turn round and smile
But don't tread on dearest Marilyn 'cos she's not very tough
She should have been made of iron or steel but she was only flesh and blood

Ref: You can see all the stars as you walk down Hollywood Boulevard
Some that you recognise some that you've hardly even heard of
People who worked and suffered and struggled for fame
Some who succeeded and some who suffered in vain [2x]

Rudolph Valentino looks very much alive
And he looks up ladies' dresses as they sadly pass him by Avoid stepping on Bela Lugosi 'cause he's liable to turn and bite
But stand close by Bette Davis because hers was such a lonely life

I wish my life was a non stop hollywood movie show
A fantasy world of celluloid villains and heroes
Because celluloid heroes never feel any pain
And celluloid heroes never really die.

Everybody's a dreamer and everybody's a star

And everybody's in show biz it doesn't matter who you are
And those who are successful be always on your guard,
Success walks hand in hand with failure along Hollywood Bouleva
