

The Iscariot

Blitzkid

Lost all my time again in admitted sin
At least I'm doing something
Played the fool here one more time before and then again
And it got me nothing
Blood is boiling up so hot, and my sanity it writes
At least I'm doing something
Shut your mouth tight, and baby
Lets sharpen all the knives
Sugar, this is nothing.

Push a young man way too far, and he's sure to fall hard
They couldn't hear me screaming
Once my savior God but then I just forgot
No use in saving demons
Brought to a bitter end in front of devout friends
They couldn't hear me screaming
Think its all just pretend? well, I sought my revenge
Murder takes no scheming
Cut all your ties from servitude divine
The betrayal it is mine
Choke back the words it took so long to find
This betrayal it is mine

Cut all your ties
Cut all your ties

Cut all your ties from servitude divine
The betrayal it is mine
Choke back the words it took so long to find
This betrayal it is mine

Lost all my time but i'm sure feeling fine...
