

3 O'Clock

Blonde Redhead

It's a letter but I don't need to open to read it
You can be sure that I get myself in predicament

Three o'clock, do I call anyone?
I don't know if I can get even fake one
Might as well wanna get a real thing later

You know, I'm just like anyone
I never said I wanna be a hero
You heard me wrong
You got me wrong
You heard me wrong

I knew his name wasn't Johnny
I would tease him "hey Joe, what do you know?"
I really liked him, he always had something
Something to tell me

Some nights we'd stay up all night
I'd tell him one long drawn out story
He takes control, he likes the control over me
That is that

Three o'clock, do I want anyone?
I don't know if I can get even fake one
Wait a while, wanna get a real thing later

You know, I'm just like anyone
I never said I wanna be a hero
You got me wrong
You heard me wrong
You heard me wrong

Some nights we'd stay up all night
I'd tell him one long drawn out story
He takes control, he likes the control over me
That is that

I knew his name wasn't Johnny
But I would tease him "hey Joe, what do you know?"
I really like him, he always has something
Something to tell me
