

Seven Two

Blonde Redhead

I am someone else
Not forever, no
Come rescue me from my mama

Someone like you, not me
Someone who flies too close
The moon, the ground
I want to know
You know how people are
You tell them something
And they start talking

You stare an abyss
And the abyss stares back at
You, you
You, you
