

Black Distractions

Blood Red Shoes

Now that I'm here I'm caught in a spin
So alone I can't succumb
To all these black distractions

When you close your eyes
I'll be there to summon the Devil inside of you
When you close your eyes
I'll be there to summon the Devil inside of you

Of my eyes is this disguise
Is lost across the breeze
I'll never tell the story

When you close your eyes
I'll be there to summon the Devil inside of you
When you close your eyes
I'll be there to summon the Devil inside of you

When you close your eyes
I'll be there to summon the Devil inside of you
When you close your eyes
I'll be there to summon the Devil inside of you
When you close your eyes
I'll be there to summon the Devil inside of you
When you close your eyes
I'll be there to summon the Devil inside of you
