

Don't Get Caught

Blood Red Shoes

Take a look at it all, isn't it beautiful?
Way too much to ignore, yeh I can't hear a warning
I don't wanna be caught when they open the doors
Coz I don't need to belong,
I just got to get on

Say goodbye it's ok to leave
Say goodbye to whatever you know
Come on and let go
Say goodbye it's ok to leave

I'm the one all along who was telling you so
Come on and let go

So open me up, come and take what you want
While everything that I've lost
Doesn't feel like it's missing
And in the end there's no time to pretend I'm so hungry for me that I won't be here too lSong

Keep an eye on me, I'm on the one all along who was gonna leave.
