

I AM NOT YOU

Blood Red Shoes

You claim to understand
But I'll take it out your hands
'Cause I'm tired of what you're saying
And I'm tired of obeying

The chances that you blew
I've had quite enough for two
We don't share DNA
No you and me, we are not the same

I am nothing like you
Nothing like you
No, I am nothing at all

I am nothing like you
Nothing like you
No, I am nothing at all

So don't pretend to care
Because I will not be there
To play your little game
You take all of the blame

'Cause I don't need a thing
That you could fuckin' give
Yeah I take all my strength
In every step I take away from you

I am nothing like you
Nothing like you
No, I am nothing at all

I am nothing like you
Nothing like you
No, I am nothing at all

(I am nothing like you)
(Nothing like you)
No, I am nothing at all

(I am nothing like you)
(Nothing like you)
Nothing at all

We're not the same
We're not the same

(I am nothing like you)
(Nothing like you)

(I am nothing like you)
(Nothing like you)
No, I am nothing at all

I am nothing like you
Nothing like you
No, I am nothing at-
