

Legacy Of Greed

Blood Red Throne

I am corruption
The one and only source
Everyone knows my name, none can resist
I am a sociopath, and so are you
My colors multiply, now go and justify your actions

So I can forge your fate
A legacy of greed, on people's misery I will feed
Destruction I bring where I am craved the most of all
My melody it brings out spitefulness
And crumbles thrones of mighty kings

I am god
My flesh is your religion
I am life
Your weakness builds my kingdom
I am death
So kneel before your master
You are mine
Obey!

My blood, a drug so refined
Just kill and disregard the consequences
Buy your wine
Buy your whores
Bathe in riches
Then kill your son, pray for more

My domain of tyranny, man's foundation
Built for war
I'm the end of everything, man's demise

Witness your own downfall through my eyes
I am god
