

Martyrized

Blood Red Throne

Spineless consecration

Erected monuments of rape and greed
Protects the perverts and fuels corruption
As mangled corpses pile up in your name
You force the countdown to revolution

No remorse
No control
No remorse
You reap what you sow, Hatred!

Lead: Meathook

Deep in your rotten core my duty lies
You cannot beat me into submission
I am a psychopath that lusts for gore
I am the devil, your fucking nightmare

No remorse
No control
No remorse
You reap what you sow, Hatred!

Look me in the eye, fight me!

So damn pathetic
Broken little man
Burning desire
To dissect you

Pushing your threshold
(You)
Silence turns to screams
(Scream)
No one can save you
(For me)
Pain is my domain
Time to suffer me

Bathing in your putrid blood
Destined to be a symbol of death
I'll become the antichrist
Destined to be one to take the blame

Martyrized!

The grinding sound of teeth on blackened stone
Moment of silence before it caves in
The sense purity within your soul
Revoked by brutal, sadistic torture
