Tortured Soul Appearance

Blood Red Throne

A bizarre mess of a humanoid hanging from his face by hooks Hanging by his mouth from a device Whose purpose is beyond the human comprehension? In his genius perversity he created an external womb for himsel

A semitranslucent bang hung from the lower portion of his abdomen A fetus in between his legs where his genitals should be The pain was excruciating A vicious hallucinogen

Inhuman bloodlust
Being all the more grotesque
With an obscure spine-like piece
Disgorged onto the ground amongst the corpses
Running up to connect various tubes going into himself
His facial expression and eyes are painful
A sickening creature to behold

A large cavity of organs where it appears flesh has been torn With no remains of normal genitalia Discovering the worst pain imaginable His back has been split wide
