

Touch Me

Blood, Sweat & Tears

When I met you in the meadow
You were walking like in a dream
Your head blowing just like the flowers
Deep within me my heart did weep

Oh come on and touch me
Feel the pleasure that I am
Can't you see I'm only human
Oh touch me
Then I know you'll understand
I was born to be your one and only man

Ah, we just stayed there for so many hours
Like the river, you know time moved on
And we lingered amongst the flowers
Then I knew my heart was gone

Oh come on and touch me
Feel the pleasure that I am
Can't you see I'm only human
Oh touch me
Then I'll know you'll understand
That I was born to be your one and only man

You lay softly, yes in the cradle
But my arms, I'd shield the mourn'
And I held you just like a baby, little girl
I could feel my soul reborn

Oh come on and touch me
Give me all the love you can
We were born to be together
Come on and touch me
Then I know you'll understand
That I was born to be your one and only man
