

One More Time

Bloodpit

I've never said I'm brainy
I ain't got too much up here
I can tell you lady keep yourself away from me

You've got a lot of money but no delight
I've got lots of love but nothing else
The further down you fall so dig your own grave

I've got nothing to hide no reason to lie
I've got nothing to lose I'll give it a try this time

Sometimes I have no patience
This time I don't give a fuck
You ask which poison I tasted something bitter, something nice

Deceptive and full of discouragement
Today it finally settled down
I don't need an illustration of my life

I took the lonely part just give me more time
I don't need your sympathy just give me more time

I've got nothing to hide, no reason to lie
I've got nothing to lose I'll give it a try one more time

I've got nothing to hide, no reason to lie

I've got nothing to hide, no reason to lie
I've got nothing to lose I'll give it a shot one more time
