Out to Get You

Bloodsimple

She's like the young white rabbit with bloodshot eyes Dreaming of another place inside it's mind Well it's a lonely place that houses the suffering and feeds th e pain So what would you do for fifteen minutes of fame Out on your own

Some friends are out to get you Some out to do you harm They'll tie you off and shoot you full of sin (2x)

She's been chasing dragons for endless nights So afraid to live and yet afraid to die Well it's a lonely place that houses the suffering and feeds th e pain So what would you do for fifteen minutes of fame Out on your own

Some friends are out to get you Some out to do you harm They'll tie you off and shoot you full of sin (2x)

Another night Just another night

Some friends are out to get you Some out to do you harm They'll tie you off and shoot you full of sin (5x)
