

Prom Night

Bloodsucking Zombies from Outer Space

There was a shot at the party of our high
Out of a a double barred shotgun for sure
I hearded the scream and someone punched me in the side
And beat me up black and blue

She called me up at the middle of the night
She said listen man, i have to do it right
She said...

Tonight is prom night and somebody's missing
The ghosts of vengeance are calling me home
Tonight is prom night and somebody's missing
I'm out for killing tonight and i want you to know

Another shot and the next cheerleader dies
One after another of her classmates fall dead
Blood's spilling out a hole lot of screams and shouts
The touch of death is just one heartbeat away

She takes revenge for every time she cried
She messes them up and let the silver bullets fly
She said...

Tonight is prom night and somebody's missing
The ghosts of vengeance are calling me home
Tonight is prom night and somebody's missing
I'm out for killing tonight and i want you to know

I wake up: oh what a mess
Why am i standing here in a stained dress
My blood covered hands hold the loaded gun
What happened tonight what have i done
Oh god something gone completely wrong

I don't care about the punishment or law
I'll send them all to hell bloody rough and raw
