

Like Girls

The Blow

He wants to talk to you cause you're a girl
And he likes girls
We all like girls
Aha aha
I flashed my powderpink passport and I walked right through
Walked up to you
I'm glad to see you got in too
And you and me are free because they'd never guess what you and
I might do

We get around looking for the things that we've never seen done
And when we find the ones that seem most fun
I'll let you try them out on me

Cause you're the girl
And he likes girls
We all like girls
Aha aha
I flashed my powderpink handgun and I walked right through
Walked up to you
I'm glad to see you got one too
And you and me are free because they'd never guess what you and
I might do

Sometimes I get loud
We draw a crowd
Don't worry cause I'm only ever really seen by you
Up walks a dude, says he likes the view
And is it rude he wants to talk to you cause you're a girl

You're a girl
And he likes girls
We all like girls
Aha aha
I flashed my powderpink passport and I walked right through
Walked up to you
I'm glad to see you got in too
And you and me are free because they'd never guess what you and I might do
