

Back Where We Belong

Blowsight

You are a fake, you're broke
You're nothing that I need to feel alive
But damn, this picturesque incisions make me smile
Your laughter, it makes me think you're a perfect drug
For many years to come
My integrity stays, choosing different ways
Abandoned, this surely doesn't happen,
Let's find a way to calm things down, my broken one

It doesn't hurt me no, it's so damn easy
It doesn't hurt so take me back where we belong
It doesn't hurt me no, I'm still here breathing
It doesn't hurt so take me back where we belong

So let's decide a day when everything is over
Can you talk a little bit slower?
I've been pitching different reasons to be found
This sound keeps smashing into walls,
And I'm afraid to let you tell me who I am.

It doesn't hurt me no, it's so damn easy
It doesn't hurt so take me back where we belong
It doesn't hurt me no, I'm still here breathing
It doesn't hurt so take me back where we belong

It's not the same without pills
It's not the same without a junkie
It's not a different hell
It's just a different cliff I'm hanging from today
You better chill, you better form a good reason
I know you can't but I will be the last one standing

It doesn't hurt..

It doesn't hurt me no, it's so damn easy
It doesn't hurt so take me back where we belong
It doesn't hurt me no, I'm still here breathing
It doesn't hurt so take me back where we belong

It doesn't hurt me no, it's so damn easy
It doesn't hurt so take me back where we belong
It doesn't hurt me no, I'm still here breathing
It doesn't hurt so take me back where we belong
