

Live Die Surrender

Blowsight

My bones, my life, my tension
My love, my weakest enemy
[You can't get the best of me]
I believe in what I see
This morning gives a headrush
I can't feel, can't breathe, I'll never see
[Today/Tonight/Tomorrow]

If we all fell overtaken
If we all need this to blame
And the questions keep on changing
But the answers stay the same

I live I die and I surrender
I didn't know I could offend her
But I was there, all alone
Too afraid of coming home to
The love she don't remember
She don't remember

In love we walk the wonders
In hate we don't give anything
Two different sides to every game
In the end we're all the same

I held back the tears you had it all
I can't reach it out if you can't fall
[Today/Tonight/Tomorrow]

If we all fell overtaken
If we all need this to blame
And the questions keep on changing
But the answers stay the same

I live I die and I surrender
I didn't know I could offend her
But I was there, all alone
Too afraid of coming home to
The love she don't remember
She don't remember

She brings me home
She said I'm next
I turned to gold when she had sex
Turned on the lights so I could see

But it all comes down to me

Hey God see me
Cos I can't see you

But I live I die and I surrender
I didn't know I could offend her
But I was there, all alone
Too afraid of coming home to
The love she don't remember
She don't remember
