

Through These Eyes

Blowsight

This is the world
This is the world
We keep changing
Every boy, Every girl
We keep changing

I can't imagine the pain
Nobody can
But I feel you
And whatever the cost
No matter the loss
I'll stay near you.

Through these eyes of a stranger
Through these eyes of our neighbour's hope
How I cried for the angels
There's a time today - a time to say goodbye

Building it up
Building it up
He can't win this
An island that bleeds
A nation in need
He'll never win this

I know you're strong enough
to hold your heads up,
Just reach the atmosphere
I see the soul of Love
The angeldust
Without anything else to fear

Through these eyes of a stranger
Through these eyes of our neighbour's hope
How I cried for the angels
There's a time today - a time to say goodbye

*Pato Pooh's part*

Through these eyes of a stranger
Through these eyes of our neighbour's hope
How I cried for the angels
There's a time today - a time to say goodbye
