

Homeward Bound Angel

Blue Rodeo

You never gave me the chance
To say goodbye to you

Somebody called and said you'd left
I don't think I'll be seeing you too soon
Two way running down the road

Do I look like anyone you know
Whatever brought you here
Well it's gonna get you home

And what's the difference
You leave no trace to be found
You here or gone
Memory fades and time steals away
As the homeward bound angel goes awandering
Still the miles won't be forgotten

In this endless solitude
Check'n the sunset for clues
I listen for echoes of your footsteps
In the hotel bars and by the summing pools
Two way running down the road

Do I look like anyone you know
Whatever brought you here
You lave no trace to be found
Well it's gonna get you home

And what's the difference
You here or gone
Memory fades and time steals away
Still the miles won't be forgotten
Goes awanderin'
As the homeward bound angel
I'm gonna go awanderin wanderin' on
Here or gone
