

Where Are You Now

Blue Rodeo

You were so complete
You made a perfect mess of my head
I should have known better
But I was bored and looking for kicks

You were the open window
A two lane highway headed west
You were my adventure
The silver charm around my neck

So where are you now?
Where are you now?

Thought I was going crazy
But now it just makes me laugh
I'm talking to the TV
And the TV is talking back

You were the dare at midnight
The gold narcotic on my breath
You were the beggar's tin cup
You were the stain on my bed

So where are you now?
Where are you now?

Gonna buy an old car
And drive high into the sun
Maybe if I lose it all
You'll have time for a little fun

You were the desert motel
You were the rose in my teeth
You were the first to forgive me
You made the last drink taste so sweet

So where are you now?
Where are you now?

You gotta tell me
Where are you now?
Come on, come on
Where, where, where are you now, where?
