

Open Your Eyes

Bob Catley

Still you can't see
What you have done to me
Still you cannot understand
The hunt is over now
You still wonder how
You can't find this dark land
The hidden world

Wait, stay for a while
Don't walk away quite yet
Don't leave before the sun will rise
Wait, give it one more chance
How can you give up?
It is time for you to open your eyes

How many times must I
Tell you that we won't die
If we're told to sell our souls
No more need to fight
I'm sure you know what's right
Just let the memories go
Let's fly away

Wait, stay for a while
Don't walk away quite yet
Don't leave before the sun will rise
Wait, give it one more chance
How can you give up?
It is time for you to open your eyes

I know you see it
I know you feel it
Why can't you just get rid of all the lying eyes
I know you see it
And I know you feel it
Why can't you just open your eyes

Wait, stay for a while
Don't walk away quite yet
Don't leave before the sun will rise
Wait, give it one more chance
How can you give up?
It is time for you to open your eyes

Wait, stay for a while
Don't walk away quite yet
Don't leave before the sun will rise
Wait, give it one more chance
How can you give up?
It is time for you to open your eyes
