Girl From the North Country

Bob Dylan

If you're traveling in the north country fair Where the winds hit heavy on the borderline Remember me to one who lives there For she was once a true love of mine.

Well, if you go when the snowflakes storm When the rivers freeze and summer ends Please see for me if she's wearing a coat so warm To keep her from the howlin' winds.

Please see from me if her hair hanging down If it curls and flows all down her breast Please see from me if her hair hanging down That's the way I remember her best.

Well, if you're traveling in the north country fair Where the winds hit heavy on the borderline Please say hello to one who lives there She once was a true love of mine.

If you're travelin' in the north country fair Where the winds hit heavy on the borderline Remember me to one who lives there She once was a true love of mine.
