We live in a political world Love don't have any place We're living in times Where men commit crimes And crime don't have any face.

We live in a political world Icicles hanging down Wedding bells ring And angels sing Clouds cover up the ground.

We live in a political world Wisdom is thrown in jail It rots in a cell Is misguided as hell Leaving no one to pick up a trail.

We live in a political world Where mercy walks the plank Life is in mirrors Death disappears Up the steps into the nearest bank.

We live in a political world Where courage is a thing of the past Houses are haunted Children unwanted The next day could be your last.

We live in a political world
The one we can see and feel
But there's no one to check
It's all a stacked deck
We all know for sure that it's real.

We live in a political world
In the cities of lonesome fear
Little by little
You turn in the middle
But you're never sure why you're here.
We live in a political world
Under the microscope
You can travel anywhere
And hang yourself there
You always got more than enough rope.

We live in a political world Turning and trashing about As soon as you're awake You're trained to take What looks like the easy way out.

We live in a political world Where peace is not welcome at all It's turned away from the door To wonder some more Or put up against the wall.

We live in a political world Everything is hers and his Climb into the frame And shout God's name But you're never sure what it is.
