

I Can't Give You Anything but Love

Bobby Darin

I can't give you anything but love, baby
That's the only thing I've plenty of, baby
You can dream a while, scheme a while
I am sure you will find happiness and I guess
All the things you've always pined for

Gee, it's good to see you lookin' swell, baby
With those diamond bracelets
Woolworth doesn't sell, pretty baby
Until that lucky day, you know darn well, baby
I can't give you anything but love

Gee, you sure look swell, baby
With those diamond bracelets, woolworth never sells, baby
Till that lucky day, you know darn well, baby
I can't give you anything, can't afford a diamond ring
I can't give you anything but love
