Hey, John, you evah been to Mississippi?

No, man, but I sure would like to visit down there.

You would?

Well, I'll tell you what then, let us hop on a plane and went.

O-kay, I hear it's very nice.

It is, it is.

When the sun goes down
The tide goes out
The people gather 'round
And they all begin to shout.

What?

Hey, hey, Uncle Dud
It's a treat to beat your feet
On the Mississippi Mud.
It's a treat to beat your feet
On the Mississippi Mud.

And what a dance do they do
Lordy, how I'm tellin' you
Why, they don't need no band
They keep time by clappin their hand.

Just as happy as a cow Chewin' on a cud When the people beat their feet On the Mississippi Mud.

Lordy, how they play it Goodness, how they sway it There's Uncle George and cousin Jack Look at those fools peckin' on their back.

What joy!
That music thrills me.

It do.

Boy, it nearly kills me Sister Kate hollers, "Son!" You sure get muddy But, it's mighty good fun

When the sun goes down
The tide goes out
The people gather round
And they all begin to shout.
Hey, Hey, Uncle Dud
It's a treat to beat your feet
On the Mississippi Mud
It's a treat to beat your feet

On the Mississippi Mud.

What a dance do they do

Lordy, how I'm tellin' you

They don't need no band They don't?

They keep time by clappin' their hand I see.

Just as happy as a cow Chewing on a cud When the people beat their feet

Yeah! Yeah!

And the people clap their hand
On the M I double S I double S I double P I mud.

An "A" for spelling.
